SPORTAUS

MESSAGE FROM SPORT AUSTRALIA

Like so many Australians, sport has been a cornerstone of my life and has shaped me in ways I could never have imagined. I am passionate in my belief in sport's unrivalled ability to unite, inspire, and build healthier, stronger communities and I am committed to ensuring that every Australian who wants to be part of a sports community, in any role, enjoys the extraordinary benefits and grows as a result of their engagement with the sport of their choice.

The Australian Sports Commission (ASC), comprising Sport Australia and the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS), is proud to support Australian sport at all levels, on behalf of the Australian Government. We nurture and develop sport at the community level with the help of our partners across the industry. This support extends to our Australian athletes competing at the pinnacle of world competition.

The unprecedented challenge of the global COVID-19 pandemic since 2020 has required incredible resilience as a society and within our sport sector. We know, however, sport is playing a crucial role in the nation's rebuilding efforts, which presents us with great opportunities.

The Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics were shining examples of the hope and inspiration sport can provide to our elite athletes, but also the communities they represent. Postponed a year, it was wonderful to see our Australian athletes respond to this adversity with the equal-best gold medal haul in our Olympic history and a total of 46 medals across a myriad of sports. Our Paralympians also overcame the toughest of preparations to excel and inspire Australians, bringing home 80 medals including 21 gold across 10 sports. More so, it was inspiring to see how our Olympians and Paralympians represented us so proudly with humility and respect, reinforcing their status as important role models.

This is important, because we need Australian sport to carry forward a legacy from one generation to the next. This is about building sustainable improvement and success across everything we do.

We want to inspire a thriving participation base, recognise the invaluable contribution of our volunteers, build sport capability and give our elite athletes the very best chance to succeed to competition and life beyond.

We are immensely proud of our many programs and initiatives that support a connection and involvement with sport at all levels. Our national Sporting Schools program provides an important first step to get children active and engaged through sport, while the AIS's focus on wellbeing can ensure our athletes feel supported during their time in high performance sport so it is as positive and rewarding as it can be.

There is so much to look forward to with a golden runway of major sporting events on home soil over the next decade, leading to the Brisbane 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games. Some of the world's biggest sporting events will converge on our shores, with World Cups or World Championships locked in for basketball, cricket, football, and netball, to name a few, presenting more wonderful opportunities for Australian sport to thrive.

South East Queensland's winning bid for the 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games provides an incredible opportunity to unite the nation through sport and provide all Australian children the chance to dream of representing their nation on the world's biggest stage, right here at home.

2032 has become a giant target to aim towards, aligning our sports, our infrastructure, and our communities to leave a positive legacy for a post-COVID Australia.

This is a pivotal time for our sector and the future green and gold runway provides an opportunity to consider the role that each of us can play in building a stronger, leaner and healthier sports industry.

On behalf of the ASC, thank you to everyone who contributes to Australian sport with the aim of making it better for all.

I could not be more excited for sport in Australia and the opportunities that will come our way.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The sport of Weightlifting, our sport, at the national level, and indeed, at international level, will be looking at the year 2021 on the rear vision mirror with utter horror. We overcame the COVID ravaged 2020 and looked forward to the incoming year, the year of the Olympic Games, with so much eagerness and with so much commitment and passion to show the world that we were not easily beaten and that we would recover.

Instead, all our States and Territories members experienced the ups and downs, the lock downs, the restrictions, the curfew imposed on all of us by our Health and Political Authorities, and we all suffered, especially our athletes, the anguish, and the agony of inactivity.

Expectations early in the year were at fever pitch, and we re-adjusted to a sporting life of operating under the new "Covid normal" return to play conditions. A few competitions were able to be held and just when we thought that we were on the way back, the Delta variant arrived, and the despair continued.

However, not before the Olympic Games were held in Tokyo to which Australia qualified five athletes: Erika Yamasaki (QLD), Kiana Elliott (SA), Charisma Amoe Tarrant (QLD), Brandon Wakeling (QLD) and Matthew Lydement (QLD). They were supported by Angela Wydall (Coach) and Greg Hobl (Team Manager).

We congratulate the athletes on attaining selection and I am sure they all gave of their most without any of them standing out. Kiana Elliott produced a remarkable 101Kg Snatch, new National record, and Charisma Amoe-Tarrant placed 6 out of 11 lifters. Of course, it could have been different. Eileen Cikamatana could have been there, and Australia could have won a Silver or Gold medal, but for the complexities of a diabolical Olympic Qualification System.

Pedro Sanchez served as Video Playback Manager, Bowen Stuart was one of the IT Managers and I had the privilege of serving the International Weightlifting Federation as the Technical Delegate. We did have a Technical Official selected for the Games, Phil Maunder, but unfortunately, for personal reasons that had much to do with the COVID quarantine regulations, he declined the appointment.

I am sure all of you would be aware that the Sport has been under the IOC microscope for the wrong reasons, and we have suffered bad publicity particularly on social media and other media outlets. The IWF Executive Board has worked extremely hard to battle through this period steadfastly committing itself to reforms, including acceptance of a new Constitution, which enhanced our position in the eyes of the IOC, and if we are able to elect a new Executive Board, with many fresh faces, I believe our position in the 2024 Paris Olympic Games and hopefully beyond, will be secured.

Administration

Considering the difficulties experienced, our Chief Executive Officer, Ian Moir, has done an outstanding job in administering the affairs of the Federation. Ian has worked alone, save for the financial management assistance from Danielle Waller, and IT Manager, Bowen Stuart, which makes his performance so remarkable. His integrity has been impeccable, he relates well with all of us, and he has managed to develop a good relationship with our Constituents and our Partners, particularly the AIS and ASC.

Ian and I exchange phone calls on a regular basis and our relation is sound and professional. I extend congratulations and thanks to Ian on behalf of us all but particularly from me.

With a great deal of work, we were able to reconstitute the South Australian Association, which is a source of satisfaction for me personally, as I had made this project one of my 'must do'. We welcome SA and with pride we announce we are now at full force. I want to thank Boris Kayser, Ian Moir, Phil Maunder and Jamie Nguyen.

Most of the Board meeting, as you would expect, have been held online but that has not diminished the intensity and the caliber of discussion and debate.

Financial

I believe the financial position of the AWF is in a good space. We have been able to meet our commitments as well as assisting our Squads to some degree and contribute to our Pathway Program so vital for our future. Thanks are extended to Danielle Waller, our Financial Manager, Ian Moir and of course the members of the Financial Commission for their work.

High Performance

Lyn Jones will report on the High Performance Commission work but, the progress or indeed the overall performance of our athlete did not reach the expected goals. Many of our athletes from all over the country were not able to train due to the lock down of Gyms and Clubs as well as restricted mobility. Eileen Cikamatana continued to train under special conditions permitted by the Victorian Government, and we all hope she continues to train well in preparation for the 2021 World Championships to be held in Tashkent – UZB in late December. We wish her well in her endeavours to win the World Championship.

Oceania Institute

The AWF welcomes to Australia the Oceania Weightlifting Institute. Paul Coffa, the Director/Coach of the Institute has settled in the Bay City of Dromana, Victoria, where Eileen Cikamatana trains on a scholarship basis. The Institute was host to PNG athletes Dika Toua and Morea Baru and their Coach as well as Kiana Elliott and her Coach before the Olympic Games. We hope that the Institute will flourish in Australia and become one of the great destinations for High Performance in Weightlifting.

Technical

Pedro Sanchez is on top of this activity, but without face-to-face competition I would suggest there has been very little opportunity for the advancement of Technical Officials over this period.

Masters

Masters, like all other sections, have been affected by the pandemic, however, the AWF managed to hold the National Masters Championships by a combination of face-to-face and online competition, albeit still with many State representatives absent. Our thanks go to Coral Quinell for keeping the light burning.

Information & Technology

We are so fortunate to have a person like Bowen Stuart managing this area. He is an amazing man doing an amazing job. His influence in this space goes beyond our boundaries, he has become one of the leading lights on IT at international level.

It is through his involvement and his skills that the IWF was able to formulate a case for the approval of the Online Event Regulations which has received acceptance by the IWF and the CGF thus permitting us to have the first ever Continental Championships online together with recognition of Total and Records as well as recognition as a Commonwealth Games qualifying event.

Later this year we will hold our Australian Championships online with better and stronger Regulations. I know Pedro Sanchez and Ian Moir have also been working on this, and I want to applaud Bowen in particular, as well as Pedro and Ian for this important development.

Future – Athletes Commission

Even though we have been shut down and most of our events have been cancelled or held online, I believe we have achieved a lot and we have done quite a lot of work in keeping our athletes occupied. One of the objects the AWF should turn its attention to in the coming year, is the formation of an Athletes Commission. Athletes are our inspirational leaders, our advocate for integrity and agents of change. We cannot, we must not ignore this progress.

Closure

I close my report by offering special thanks on behalf of the AWF to all our State and Territory Associations, which have continued to operate under difficult circumstances. I hope and trust that things improve, and we might engage in normal activity once again and soon.

My special thanks and appreciation, on behalf of the Board of Directors, are extended to the AIS, our Principal Partner, not just for the funding we receive but importantly for the support and guidance we receive. Our thanks are also offered to Adam Gerasimou, Alex Newton, and Kable Kelleway.

Thanks also to our other Partners, Commonwealth Games Australia, and CEO Craig Phillips, and the Australian Olympic Committee and CEO Matt Carroll. Both organisations operate in true partnership with the member sports and their work has a lasting positive effect that goes beyond the quadrennial Games.

I thank and congratulate every member of the Board of Directors: Lyn Jones, Angela Wydall, Phil Maunder, Coral Quinell, Pedro Sanchez, Boris Kayser for their support, their diligence, and their professional approach to duty.

On a personal note, I would like to especially thank Ian Moir, Lyn Jones, Boris Kayser, Pedro Sanchez, Luke Borreggine and Julian Jones for their friendship, support, and their valued advice.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER REPORT

In 2020 weightlifting as we knew it was put on pause by a pandemic and the disruption continued into 2021. Operationally, the AWF's outlook for the year remained generally optimistic and events were scheduled despite the threat of snap lockdowns and sudden border closures hanging over every planned activity. Indeed, COVID did intrude on several national and international competitions and national squad training camps. But despite the setbacks and frustrations caused by postponements, cancellations and last-minute 'pivoting', a number of important events were delivered this year.

The National Under 23 and Junior Championships which had such a promising beginning in 2019 made something of a comeback this year, albeit in the form of an email tournament.

The Youth and Under 15 Championships almost came together in Hobart in July but had to be transferred to an online format with just a few days' notice when lockdowns were imposed in Sydney, Brisbane and Perth, and state borders closed.

Although one third of the preliminary entrants in the Australian and Oceania and Commonwealth Masters Championships were forced to withdraw because of localised lockdowns and interstate travel restrictions, 130 lifters were still able to compete in a hybrid event with most participating online from remote locations with approximately fifty lifters gathered at the designated competition venue in Cairns.

In addition to AWF Championships, Australian lifters, coaches and technical officials engaged in online events organised by the Oceania Weightlifting Federation and the IWF-Masters Committee. While online weightlifting was born out of necessity, it has developed at a fast pace, and AWF personnel including Sam Coffa, Pedro Sanchez and Bowen Stuart are at the forefront of this work domestically and internationally. The commissioning of the 2021 Oceania Weightlifting Championships by the Oceania Weightlifting Federation as an online competition and the International Weightlifting Federation's endorsement of that event as a valid Continental Championship was a big step in the evolution of online weightlifting and an indication that it may continue to serve the advancement of the sport in the future, even after the nightmare of the pandemic is over.

One international event that wasn't beaten by COVID-19 was the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. Despite the Games being postponed by a year and facing unprecedented challenges, the Australian Olympic Committee never wavered from their commitment to take the Australian Olympic Team to Tokyo, and the Olympic Games went on. Five Australian weightlifters qualified and were selected in the Australian Olympic Team, and they were supported by two team officials. I wish to acknowledge and thank Matt Carroll, the CEO of the Australian Olympic Committee, Australian Olympic Team Chef de Mission Ian Chesterman and the Australian Olympic Team support personnel who worked incredibly hard to ensure Australia's participation in the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.

The effects of a delayed Olympics were also felt by our other Games partner, Commonwealth Games Australia. Respecting the general agreement between CGA and the AOC not to intrude on each other's 'Games periods' meant that CGA kept a low public profile until the end of August, although preparations for the Australian Team's campaign in Birmingham continued as usual behind the scenes. CGA approved $50,000 in direct funding assistance for weightlifters through the Breakthrough B2022 program and a further $58,000 will fund a weightlifting training camp prior to the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games. Some weightlifters received a portion of the Breakthrough 2022 funding in the first round allocations and the remaining $38,000 will be distributed early in the new year according to an assessment of Birmingham 2022 medal-winning potential. The AWF is grateful for the support of CGA and I thank CEO Craig Phillips, General Manager Tim Mahon and the CGA staff for their advice and support.

The CGA's Breakthrough 2022 funding program is administered by the Australian Institute of Sport, which also provides the AWF with government funding for the High Performance Program and, since last year, the Performance Pathway Program. AIS High Performance funding is allocated to Direct Athlete Support, Squad Training Camps, Representative Team costs and State High Performance Coordinators. The Performance Pathway funding supports the Performance Pathway workforce and the range of activities described in the Pathway Manager's report. I thank Adam Gerasimou, Alex Newton and Kable Kelleway of the AIS for their assistance. I also thank the four AWF State High Performance Coordinators: Jay Saxton, Luke Borreggine, Miles Wydall, Harvey Goodman; and the Performance Pathway Manager Greg Hobl, for their operational support and their good work 'on the ground'.

The AWF's operations are also supported by Danielle Waller, Finance Manager, and Information Technology & Communications Manager Bowen Stuart. Not only are Danielle and Bowen highly skilled professionals in their respective fields, but they're also heavily involved in weightlifting, and they contribute to the sport in many ways, above and beyond their contractual obligations. I thank Danielle and Bowen for their support and their work.

AIS High Performance funding is directly linked to Olympic Games outcomes which is why weightlifting's place in the Olympic Games is very important to Australian weightlifters. If the IOC removed weightlifting from the Olympic Games for some reason, it wouldn't be the end of weightlifting, but it would have a direct effect on the level of financial support available to Australian weightlifters. Weightlifting's relationship with the IOC has been a focal point in the reform process undertaken by the IWF, and the adoption of a new constitution and athlete-inclusive governance structure provides a certain level of confidence in the sport's Olympic future. However it seems obvious that the IOC remains watchful of the IWF's progress and the IWF Electoral Congress in December could possibly be the most important meeting in the organisation's 116-year history. The AWF President, Sam Coffa, has been heavily involved throughout this process, firstly as an advisor to the IWF Executive Board and then as an Executive Board Member and Sam continues to contribute the wisdom gained from a life-time of service to the sport of weightlifting at all levels.

In closing, I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to AWF President Sam Coffa for his strong leadership, and to the Board of Directors. Sam and the other Directors are always receptive and responsive, and they ensure that all matters before the Board are carefully considered, debated and resolved effectively and efficiently.

Finally, I thank the State Members for continuing to develop and deliver the sport under very difficult conditions once again and at the risk of repeating last year's wish, I hope that the next year will be much brighter for all of us.

Ian Moir
Chief Executive Officer

HIGH PERFORMANCE PROGRAM REPORT

MEMBERS OF HPC

REPORT

No face-to-face meetings of the HPC were possible due to travel restrictions but regular communication was maintained via email and online meetings.

2021 continued the pattern of 2020 as another disrupted and difficult year. Many of the High Performance Program's plans had to be shelved due to the resurgence of pandemic problems domestically and internationally.

Planned participation in the Commonwealth Championships (Singapore in March) was cancelled as Singapore went into lockdown. This was to be one of our Commonwealth Games qualifiers with automatic selection for the winners. This situation has been rescued in December which will be reported later. We could not send a team to the World Junior Championships in Tashkent in May due to Australian lockdown. This was also the fate of the World Youth Championships in Jeddah in October.

Certainly, the BIG event of the year was the postponed Olympic Games in Tokyo. Here we had some good fortune, insofar that the modified qualifying process enabled five Australian lifters to qualify for the Games as opposed to the anticipated four. In recognition of the increased team size, the AOC agreed to our request for an additional team official and so we had Angela Wydall as Head Coach and Greg Hobl as Team Manager. Our team results as listed below were not as inspiring as hoped and the last selected athlete with limited preparation time achieved our highest place.

OLYMPIC TEAM RESULTS

Erika Yamasaki 59kg – 170kg (75kg / 95kg) – 2 successful attempts – 12th

Kiana Elliott 64kg – 209kg (101kg / 108kg) – 4 successful attempts – 11th

Charisma Amoe-Tarrant +87kg – 243kg (105kg / 138kg) – 6 successful attempts - 6th

Brandon Wakeling 73kg – 291kg (125kg / 166kg) – 6 successful attempts – 13th

Mathew Lydement 109kg – 338kg (158kg / 180kg) – 3 successful attempts – 12th

TRAINING CAMPS

Our Squad training camps at AIS had been booked and organised and we started off well with one Senior Camp (April), one Junior/Youth Camp (May) and the Pathway Camp successfully run. However, with the State lockdowns and border closures coming into play the following camps had to be cancelled or postponed:

June & December – Pathway Camps

July – Senior Camp

August & November – Junior/Youth

A Pathway Squad camp has now been booked for February 2022 and a Junior/ Youth camp for April 2022. Others will be booked for 2022 once the domestic calendar is finalised.

2022 COMMONWEALTH GAMES QUALIFYING

This has been most difficult situation but now we have a relatively clear procedure to follow. Only results from specific international events count in the final ranking lists, from which the qualifiers will be selected – 8 lifters per category in most cases and 9 lifters in each of two categories – 1 qualified lifter/nation/category. Due to very close co-operation from the IWF, CWF and OWF the Oceania competition took place on-line in September with the results accepted for the qualification ranking. There is now agreement to hold qualifying events in each Continental Federation prior to 28th February 2022.

The additional qualification event in the Oceania Region will take place in Auckland NZL in February 2022. Prior to this final event the 2021 World Championships will now incorporate the 2021 Commonwealth Championships with the highest finishing Commonwealth lifters in each of the Birmingham Games categories automatically qualifying for the Games. Special rules are in force so that Wales, Scotland & Northern Ireland (Not full IWF members) can send athletes and qualify in the Commonwealth Championships, but not figure in the World Championships. England as the host nation will automatically get a full representation, as Australia did in 2018.

SQUADS:

The HPC met to discuss the Games situation and the stipends being paid to Super Squad and Elite Squad lifters. The emphasis now must definitely be on the Birmingham Commonwealth Games and the lifters who are considered to be medal chances, plus other likely team members. The current system will remain in place to the end of the year and become B2022-focussed from January 2022. However, with regard to funding a team to the World Championships the situation now is:

- Elite lifters – full funding
- Super Squad (A Grade) – accommodation and entry fees covered
- National Squad (B Grade qualified for Commonwealth Championships) – self-funding required

Pathway Squad – our Performance Pathway Manager Greg Hobl with assistance from the CEO & Julian Jones, put forward a Pathway Squad plan for the next two years. As a result of this the AIS has provided a grant for the two years of $193,140 which is to cover Training Camps, Coach Development and International competition.

The High Performance program is served by four State High Performance Coordinators who each cover two states and provide information and support to HP Squad athletes and their coaches. With the departure of Emily Muskett back to the UK Harvey Goodman came on board as the new Victorian & Tasmania SHPC. The other SHPCs are: Miles Wydall (QLD & NT), Luke Borreggine (NSW & ACT), and Jay Saxton (WA & SA).

Our Current Squad members as listed below show quite a few changes from the 2020 lists with movement up and down. Much of this downward movement comes about due to lack of opportunity to compete. Doubtless we will see even more movement in 2022.

Elite Squad

Eileen Cikamantana, Sarah Cochrane, Kyle Bruce, David James, Kiana Elliott.

Super Squad

Ridge Barredo, Jackson-Roberts Young, Ryley Porter, Tori Gallegos, Brandon Wakeling, Mathew Lydement, Leo Lark, Isabel Lorenzi.

National Squad

Charisma Amoe-Tarrant, Jacob Marquardt, Olivia Kelly, Ebony Gorincu, Darcy Kay, Suamili Nanai, Sabah Chamoun, Beau Garrett, Erika Yamasaki, Michael Lane, Josh Wu, Boris Elesin, Brenna Kean, Liam Saxby.

Junior/Youth Squad:

Jae Daly, Jaspa Hope, Maddison Power, Nelson Harris, Oliver Saxton, Tom Shannon, Adelaide Utz, Celine Huynh, Corey Radford, Dexter Todd, Grace Davies, Grace Tjerkstra, Harper Manz, Jacinta Sherwell, Jack Gibson, Jacob Tout, Jessica Gorka, Josh Sargeant, Joshua Stange, Layla Bloom, Lewis Symonds, Lily Strange, Logan Weaver, Max McGavern, Noah Milford, Nya Hayman, Rhys Stewart, Ryan Martin, Sophie Prater, Taia Moni Pakoti, Tanaya Quinsee, Tanesha Hosking-Mani, Tayla Stephens.

Pathway Squad:

Sylvan Richardson, Sharni Quinsee, Benjamin La Cunza-Watson, Hannah Pickrell, Jaedon Carlyon, Thicia Acquisto, Emily Cook, Skye Wilson, Joshua Reynolds, Deacon Mercieca, Luke Bidgood, Lochlan Roberts, Chloe Saliba, Sophie Daley, Gabrielle McLean.

Hopefully with a return to “normality” and the re-introduction of the Training Camps and domestic and international competitions, we can look forward to an increase in results from our talented lifters.

International Scene:

The IWF has adopted a new constitution and our international federation’s governance reform continues with input from many, including our own AWF President, and these developments are being closely watched by the IOC. The IWF Electoral Congress which follows on from the 2021 World Championships in Tashkent will doubtless see even more changes and influences which will have an effect on Australia and the rest of the weightlifting world and it is to be hoped that the IOC will be convinced that weightlifting deserves a place in the Olympic Games of Paris 2024 and beyond.

Lyn Jones
HPC Chair

PERFORMANCE PATHWAY REPORT

The Performance Pathway Program was initiated in November 2020 with the help of the Australian Institute of Sport which provided funding for the employment of a Performance Pathway Manager.

The AWF Pathway Manager is responsible for the identification of an AWF Performance Pathway Squad as the first step on the AWF High Performance Program, catering for Youth age (under 17) lifters.

Initially the program was restricted to the holding of Performance Pathway Squad camps at the Australian Institute of Sport, funded by the AWF, to introduce youth age athletes to a high-performance sport environment for the first time.

Subsequently additional funding of $193,140.00 has been obtained from the AIS that will allow the Pathway program to continue to

- confirm and develop talented athletes through the continuation of the Performance Pathway Squad Camp Program;
- enhance the competition readiness of Performance Pathway Squad athletes via international competition experiences; and
- support coaching development strategies that will enable targeted coaches to participate in AWF Performance Pathway Squad training camps and specialised coach development workshops.

The initial AWF Performance Pathway Squad which commenced in January 2021 and was installed for a 6 month period was made up of 14 athletes:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Benjamin La Cunza-Watson (WA) | • Lewis Symonds (QLD) |
| • Corey Radford (NSW) | • Logan Weaver (QLD) |
| • Deacon Mercieca (NSW) | • Max Mc Gavern (NSW) |
| • Hannah Pickrell (TAS) | • Nya Hayman (QLD) |
| • Harper Manz (QLD) | • Sharni Quinsee (WA) |
| • Jacob Tout (VIC) | • Sylvan Richardson (QLD) |
| • Joshua Strange (QLD) | • Hannah Pickrell (TAS) |
| • Kiana Bennett-Tamati (WA) | |

The Squad members were able to participate in two Pathway Camps held at the AIS between 19-21 February and 03-06 June 2021. The athletes undertook a variety of experiences including

- training twice a day in the AIS gym
- use of the AIS Recovery Centre
- AIS staff presentations on topics such as nutrition and goal setting.
- Sport Integrity Australia Anti-Doping Seminars

At the conclusion of the 6 month tenure of this squad, 9 of the members moved into the AWF Youth Squad, meaning they had progressed and graduated from the Pathway Squad program. This is surely a positive sign that the Pathway Squad can be an important starting point for young athletes within the AWF High Performance Program.

The second and current Pathway Squad commenced in July 2021 and is made up of 15 lifters;

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Benjamin La Cunza-Watson (WA) | • Lochlan Roberts (QLD) |
| • Chloe Saliba (QLD) | • Luke Bidgood (QLD) |
| • Deacon Mercieca (NSW) | • Sharni Quinsee (WA) |
| • Emily Cook (WA) | • Skye Wilson (QLD) |
| • Gabrielle McLean (WA) | • Sophie Daley (QLD) |
| • Hannah Pickrell (TAS) | • Sylvan Richardson (QLD) |
| • Jaeden Carlyon (WA) | • Thicia Acquisto (VIC) |

Unfortunately, the second Pathway Squad was unable to attend an AIS camp due to the covid restrictions existing throughout Australia in the second half of 2021. The Squad composition will be revised at the end of 2021 and a new Pathway Squad created, to commence in 2022.

It is hoped that with COVID restrictions easing in 2022, Pathway Squads will be able to enjoy the full benefits of the program.

TECHNICAL COMMISSION REPORT

Another year of Covid, another year of frustration but despite all that the Olympic Games, which we were all looking forward to last year, went ahead this year and what a success they were. The Games, thanks to the work of many were a great success.

Since our last AGM once again we have not had many International Competitions that our Officials were able to participate in, apart from the Olympic Games, or unless they were Online Competitions.

The Technical Commission has been busy working with Bowen Stuart developing Software to enable us to run Online competition that are as close as possible to a real-life competition. The Software has been so successful that it has enabled us to run Continental and National Championships Online where the results have been officially recognised and Athletes have been able to Rank for qualification to the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games. A big thank you goes to the IWF for approving a set of Online Event Regulations to allow the running of the Oceania Championships Online.

In closing I would like to thank my fellow Technical Commission members, Sam Coffa, Phil Maunder, Ian Moir for their contribution and support throughout the year, and a special mention to Bowen Stuart for working so hard in making the Online Competitions possible, thank you Bowen.

Pedro Sanchez
Technical Commission Chair

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The director has prepared the financial statements on the basis that the company is a non-reporting entity because there are no users dependent on general purpose financial statements. The financial statements are therefore special purpose financial statements that have been prepared in order to meet the needs of the member.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the significant accounting policies disclosed below, which the director has determined are appropriate to meet the needs of the member. Such accounting policies are consistent with the previous period unless stated otherwise.

The financial statements have been prepared on a cash basis and are based on historical costs unless stated otherwise in the notes. The accounting policies that have been adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are as follows:

(a) Income Tax

The entity is not liable for income tax.

(b) Property, Plant and Equipment

All property, plant and equipment except for freehold land and buildings are initially measured at cost and are depreciated over their useful lives to the company.

The carrying amount of plant and equipment is reviewed annually by the directors to ensure it is not in excess of the recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is assessed on the basis of expected net cash flows that will be received from the asset's employment and subsequent disposal. The expected net cash flows have been discounted to present values in determining recoverable amounts.

Freehold land and buildings are carried at their recoverable amounts, based on periodic, but at least triennial, valuations by the directors.

Depreciation

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets, including buildings and capitalised lease assets but excluding freehold land, is depreciated over the asset's useful life to the company commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use.

(c) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included with other receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

(d) Committee Reporting

The committee recognises that it is a Tier 2 reporting organisation.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2021

(e) Revenue and other income

The core principle of AASB 15 is that revenue is recognised on a basis that reflects the transfer of promised goods or services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration the Organisation expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. Revenue is recognised by applying a five-step model as follows:

1. Identify the contract with the customer
2. Identify the performance obligations
3. Determine the transaction price
4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations
5. Recognise revenue as and when control of the performance obligations is transferred

The revenue recognition policies for the principal revenue streams of the Organisation are affiliation fees, coaching accreditation fees, sponsorship, competition, games revenue and merchandise sales. These amounts are recognised as revenue when control of the performance obligation have been transferred.

(f) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognised initially on the date that the Organisation becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

On initial recognition, all financial instruments are measured at fair value plus transaction costs (except for instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss where transaction costs are expensed as incurred).

Financial assets

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Amortised cost

Assets measured at amortised cost are financial assets where:

- the business model is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

The Organisation's financial assets measured at amortised cost comprise trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position.

Subsequent to initial recognition, these assets are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method less provision for impairment.

Interest income, foreign exchange gains or losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report, in accordance with accounting policies described in Note 1 to the financial statements and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Reviewer's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to report a conclusion on the financial report based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to review engagements and plan and perform the review to obtain limited assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

A review involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks or material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view, in order to design review procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our reported conclusion.

Independence

In conducting our review, we complied with the independence requirements of Australian professional ethical pronouncements.

Reviewer's Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that these financial statements do not present fairly, in all material aspects, the financial position of the Australian Weightlifting Federation as at 30 June 2021, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards.
